

Meet Cincinnati VAMC's Residents!

Mei (Emily) Lin

emily.t.lin5@va.gov

Hometown: Chicago, IL

Education: University of Illinois at Chicago College of Pharmacy

Why Cincinnati VA? Cincinnati VA's residency program is extremely flexible and everyone is very willing to work towards providing a tailored experience to fit each resident's needs. Cincinnati VA had the strengths I was looking for in my areas of interest and the people who I knew would help to foster my growth as a pharmacist.

Research Project: Development of an evidence based comprehensive immunization menu in the Computerized Patient Record System (CPRS)

Areas of Interest: Informatics, Administration, Education

Hometown: Grand Junction, CO

Education: University of North Carolina Chapel Hill, Eshelman School of Pharmacy

Why Cincinnati VA? There is no grander place on Earth than Kings Island, Skyline Chili and the Bengals and the Reds!

Research Project: Effects of physician education on the management of patients with chronic non-cancer related pain in the primary care setting: Implications for a pharmacist-based opioid management clinic

Areas of Interest: Oncology, Administration

Justin L. Roberts

justin.l.roberts5@va.gov

Emily Salzman

emily.salzman@va.gov

Hometown: Cincinnati, OH

Education: University of Toledo College of Pharmacy & Pharmaceutical Sciences

Why Cincinnati VA? As a student I had four rotations at the Cincinnati VA. I really enjoyed the experience and the people I met along the way!

Research Project: Efficacy and safety of U-500 insulin as compared to high dose conventional insulin therapy: a retrospective chart review

Areas of Interest: Infectious Disease, Administration

Hometown: Lexington, Kentucky

Education: University of Kentucky College of Pharmacy

Why Cincinnati VA? I wanted a more inpatient/outpatient residency where I could interact with patients, develop relationships with them, and still have a clinical role.

Research Project: Evaluation of Vancomycin Nephrotoxicity after Protocol Changes

Areas of Interest: Internal Medicine

Alyssa Wilson

alyssa.wilson3@va.gov

